Christmas Collection Craft Fair
Saturday November 1, 2025 8:30am to 3pm

The First Congregational Church announces its annual Christmas Collection Craft Fair for 2024. The 2024 fair had approximately 500 shoppers in attendance. This juried craft fair is open solely to crafters and artists selling their own handcrafted products. We offer extensive advertising in local and regional newspapers, as well as on television. Signs and flyers are prominently displayed throughout East Longmeadow and neighboring communities. We are now accepting applications for our fair on Saturday, November 1, 2025.

To apply: 1) Complete the application form. Please type or write clearly.
2) Submit color photographs of your work with an explanation of your art/craft. Your application will not be considered without accompanying photographs. This is a juried craft fair. (Photos may be sent by email: Cindystjohn83@gmail.com)
3) Return application and photographs with the application fee. If you want your photos returned, include an appropriately sized, self-addressed envelope with sufficient postage.
The jury committee reserves the right to deny applications due to lack of originality, workmanship or presentation and to limit the number of crafters in any category. (Fee will be returned if not selected.)

The First Congregational Church reserves the right to make and enforce all operating rules. The church will require the removal of any items deemed inappropriate for sale. We respectfully ask that you exhibit only what was stated, reviewed and approved from your application.

If selected to participate in the 2025 Christmas Collection Craft Fair, the following conditions apply:

- 1) Crafters are expected to donate one of their craft items for the church's raffle, which is displayed at the main entrance to the fair. (This is great advertising for your booth.)

- 3) Outside spaces are 10'x10'. You must provide your own tables, chairs and tent. No electricity is available outside.
