Job Title: Part-Time Church Musician, First Congregational Church East Longmeadow, UCC

Reports To: Personnel Committee

Job Summary:

The Part-Time Church Musician at the First Congregational Church East Longmeadow, UCC will lead and develop the church's music ministry, creating meaningful worship experiences that incorporate the church's rich musical resources, including an organ, piano, chimes, bells, and Conga drum. The musician will collaborate with clergy, staff, and volunteers to plan and implement music for regular worship services, special events, and seasonal programs. Preference will be given to candidates with strong organ-playing skills and a vision for utilizing the church's diverse musical instruments in worship.

Key Responsibilities:

1. Worship Leadership:

- Plan, coordinate, and lead music for Sunday worship services in close collaboration with the minister and deacons, supporting traditional, contemporary, and blended styles of worship.
- Facilitate the congregation in singing and worshipping through music, including hymns, special music, preludes, postludes, offertory, responses, etc.
- Select, in collaboration with the minister, offertorium, and other music that align with sermon themes and the liturgical calendar.
- Play the organ or piano for worship services, or arrange for accompanists as needed.
- Support volunteer or guest choir leaders as needed for preparation and direction.

2. Program Collaboration:

- Develop and nurture a vision for the church's music program, incorporating a variety of musical styles and instruments.
- Organize special music programs, such as Christmas and Advent services, Easter services, or community events.
- Collaborate with other musicians and guest artists to enhance worship.

3. Administration and Communication:

- Attend worship planning meetings with the minister and other staff as required.
- Manage the music budget, including purchasing sheet music, supplies, and equipment.
- Communicate schedules, expectations, and updates to musicians and church leadership.
- Schedule and arrange for replacement music as needed.

4. Instrument Oversight:

- Ensure the proper maintenance and care of the church organ, piano, and other musical instruments.

5. Volunteer Coordination:

- Recruit and rehearse with volunteer musicians and vocalists.
- Foster a welcoming and inclusive environment for all participants.

Qualifications:

- Strong proficiency in organ and/or piano performance, with a preference for candidates who are experienced organists.
- Familiarity with traditional and contemporary church music, as well as liturgical practices.
- Strong organizational, leadership, and interpersonal skills.
- Ability to collaborate with the minister, staff, volunteers, and community organizations.

Preferred Qualifications:

- Degree in music, music education, or a related field.
- Experience working in a church or worship setting.
- Ability to play multiple instruments or arrange music.

Work Hours:

- Approximately 8–10 hours per week, including, but not limited to, Sunday worship, planning meetings and preparation time.
- This is a part-time, year-round (or 10-mo) position.
- Additional hours for special events, holidays, or seasonal programs.

Compensation:

- Salary range $14,000 - $18,000 and commensurate with experience and qualifications.
